Hagemann Helmut, Bancos, Incendiarios e Florestas Tropicais. O papel da Cooperacao para o Desenvolvimento na destrucao das florestas tropicais brasileiras, Rio de Janeiro, FASE, IBASE & ISA, 1996. This research work of H.Hagemann -from Urgewald, Germany- analyses critically different projects financed by multilateral credit banks in the Brazilian territory. The book offers abundant information on the negative effects of such type of projects and presents alternatives for the effective protection of the Brazilian tropical forests. It is written in Portuguese. For more information please contact FASE, IBASE or Instituto Socioambiental.
