
Women and water justice struggles in Africa

A research by the Urgent Action Fund- Africa (UAF-Africa) underlines how it is women who bear the brunt of lack of water and how this has an impact on their health and livelihoods as well as that of their families and wider community. The report calls for a water justice campaign that focuses on strengthening grassroots organising and feminist movement-building across Africa. Read the report in English here.